RE: 2022 & 2023 Presidential Rank Awards Recognition

Dear Director Ahuja and Director Young:

On behalf of the Senior Executives Association (SEA), the non-partisan, non-profit professional association which represents the interests of career federal executives in the Senior Executive Service (SES), those in Senior Level (SL), Scientific and Professional (ST) and equivalent positions, I write to thank you and the Biden administration for the April 18 Presidential Rank Awards Recognition event recognizing the President's 2022 and 2023 Rank Awardees.

SEA was proud to be in attendance at this event. We heard from many senior executives that they truly appreciated the opportunity to come together in the White House complex to be recognized by leaders of this administration. These seemingly simple acts have a profound impact on career federal leaders who are inspired principally by their public service motivation, passion for their agency's mission, and desire to deliver for the American people.

As we prepare to celebrate Public Service Recognition Week, continuing to tell the stories of these amazing public service leaders, along with those about federal employees at all levels working across disciplines and across the globe, is important to demonstrate to the American people how their neighbors and friends who work in public service are making a difference in communities across the country. Telling these stories is crucial to rebuilding trust in government and essential institutions.

Thank you for your leadership championing the federal workforce.

Sincerely,

Marcus L. Hill
President
